Defendants.	)

The parties filed a second joint motion to continue the Early Neutral Evaluation (ENE) and related dates by 45 days. The Court had already granted the parties a continuance of the ENE so that they could engage in settlement discussions to arrive at a global resolution of the issues involved at all of Defendants' locations. The parties represent that they have arrived at an agreement as to injunctive relief and are working on an agreement as to monetary relief. For good cause shown, the Court

GRANTS the motion and ORDERS:

1. The telephonic ENE scheduled for November 1, 2007 at 2:00 p.m. is VACATED and RESET for November 26, 2007 at 2:30 p.m.
2. No later than November 5, 2007, plaintiff's counsel shall serve and lodge with Magistrate Judge Stormes' chambers the statement explained in the Court's original ENE Order.
3. After service of plaintiff's statement and no later than November 12, 2007, counsel for the parties, and any unrepresented parties, shall meet and confer in person at the subject
